

FNSDS 2010 Annual Conference

CALL FOR PRESENTERS..

January 27-28th, 2010
Delta Grand Okanagan Resort - Kelowna, BC

The First Nations Social Development Society is a non-profit society that supports BC First Nation communities in the area of Social Development. FNSDS considers it a high priority to keep abreast of the needs and concerns of First Nations in BC as they relate to Social Development and the health and wellbeing of BC First Nations.

Through its various Social Development stakeholder networks, FNSDS manages and facilitates activities with BC First Nation communities in the areas of Income Assistance, Band Social Development Worker support and training, Persons with Disabilities, Client Case Management and Active Measures Activities. The FNSDS Conferences create a venue for the procurement of this information while creating opportunity for Social Development field staff to network, be heard and to receive needed information on the social, political and economic changes that may affect their work, clients and communities.

The First Nations Social Development Society is hosting its 6th annual conference at the Delta Grand Okanagan Resort & Conference Centre in Kelowna, BC on January 27-28th, 2010. This year's conference theme is predicated on building sustainable futures with our people and in our communities. The conference workshops, presenters and speakers will focus on how we as First Nations can work together. This year's themes are:

- Social Sustainability
- Community Development
- Health & Wellness
- Innovative Partnership Development
- Human Resource Development
- Youth Engagement & Leadership
- Social Enterprise

Workshop Detail : Two 1.5 hour presentations over one day
Keynote Speakers : 30 minute presentation
Panel : Each panelist will have 15-20 minutes

Please note that FNSDS is a non-profit society that offers this annual conference free of charge to all delegates.

FNSDS will cover all travel and meal costs for 1 presenter, per workshop.
